Classified By: Deputy Chief of Mission Thomas P. Kelly for reasons 1.4( b)(c)and(d)

(S) Action Request: DCM, PolCouns, and A/LegAtt met October 25 with Foreign Ministry's AMIA lead Ambassador Guillermo Gonzalez to compare information and review diplomatic efforts in preparation for the November 5-6 Interpol General Assembly meeting in Marrakech. Gonzalez asked for specific help reaching out to Singapore and South Korea, both with representatives on Interpol's Executive Committee. Gonzalez said the Koreans had responded to the Argentine demarche very cautiously, insisting that they wanted to hear the Iranians before reaching a decision. In Singapore, the Argentines also got an evasive response. Following up on the GOA's request for assistance, post requests Department seek Embassy Singapore's and Embassy Seoul's assistance in approaching appropriate authorities to support Argentina as per ref. A. Post will consult with Gonzalez before his October 31 departure for Marrakech and would appreciate reports of any feedback from Embassies' outreach to host government authorities.
